

One of the leading and most diversified Conflict Management, Security and Licensing training providers in the UK.

SSD Training Services Limited are based in Lowestoft, Suffolk but deliver front line training courses in all areas of the UK in partnership with the NHS, Specialist Healthcare Trusts, Local Authorities, Crime and Disorder Reduction Partnerships, SAFER Neighbourhoods, Regional Colleges, Government Agencies, Public and Private Sector organisations as well as lone workers and individual students throughout the UK to offer the most comprehensive and competitive training packages for front line staff to develop skills for managing abuse, violence or aggression in the workplace within the following sectors.

Health Care - Hospitality - Housing - Local Authority - Retail - Transport Security - Social Care - General

We can deliver a complete service in Conflict Management for front line staff to help them deal with all aspects of abuse, violence or aggression. We work with you to offer the best possible guidance, training and solutions to suit your organisation and the clients who you work with.

City and Guilds qualifications for: Civil Enforcement Officers (Formerly Parking Attendants)

BIIAB courses for Security Guards and Door Supervisors

City and Guilds Level 2 Certificate in Conflict Management

BIIAB Level 2 Award in Door Supervision

We offer nationally accredited qualifications approved by The City and Guilds of London Institute, BIIAB and courses approved by The British Parking Association as well as bespoke courses designed specifically for our clients.

To find out more about our organisation and the services that we offer, please email: ad

min@ssdtrainingservices.com or call 01502 513401 to request more information, advice and guidance regarding training within your sector.